Drop Ship Agreement

This agreement is entered into by and between _____ “Customer”, and Royal Imaging International “Royal” as of the date of the last executed signature contained herein.

WHEREAS, Customer desires to order various goods from Royal to be paid for by Customer.

WHEREAS, such goods are for the ultimate use of retail customers of Customer, who are to pay Customer for such goods.

WHEREAS, to increase efficiency, Customer desires that Royal ship such goods as are ordered by Customer directly to retail customers of Customer.

NOW, THEREFORE, in mutual consideration of the promises, conditions, covenants, and agreements contained in this agreement, the parties agree as follows:

1. Upon the request of Customer, Royal, at no expense to Royal, agrees to ship goods ordered by Customer directly to retail customers of Customer. Customer shall supply all addresses of such retail customers.
2. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, Customer shall be solely responsible for the payment to Royal of all of the goods shipped ordered by Customer, no matter where shipped.
3. Customer further agrees to hold harmless and indemnify Royal from any and all claims arising out of the sale of any such goods by Customer to retail customers of Customer, which are shipped by Royal.
4. In the event of any litigation arising from this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to all costs incurred in enforcing the Agreement, including reasonable Attorney’s fees.
5. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to create an agency agreement between Royal and Customer.
6. This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, shall become effective when each such separate counterpart has been exchanged between or among the parties.
